Sybil is a 1976 American television film in two parts, 3 + 1/4 hours, with Sally Field and Joanne Woodward in the lead roles. It is based on the book of the same name. This is a very interesting, psychological and deep film. The plot of the film is about a woman who, at the age of 20, finds out that she is in fact a transsexual and her transformation into a woman. Sybil is a woman who has pretended to be a man all her life. She was a woman, always, and now she knows the truth. This is a film about transformation. about desire, about love, about finding oneself, about love for oneself and for other people. This is a very touching and profound film.
