A few days ago I needed to convert a video to WMV for my boss to view on his new ipad for him to give me a job. He was reading all these guides and forums and was annoyed that he wasn't able to find a simple solution. The instructions on the sites were really confusing and he didn't have the time to waste on trial and error. So, I decided to create this guide for him to save him time. This tutorial is designed to be easy to follow and I have gone through many

YouTube videos to gather the information I have put into this guide. If you have any questions I will get back to you ASAP and hope you find this guide useful. Mr Joyce, a former managing director of Retail Excellence Asia Pacific and ANZ's chief economic adviser, replaces the retiring Greg Kelly, who served as chief executive since 2010. Advertisement "There's no better person to help us navigate the many challenges that we are facing as a professional association and organisation," Mr Joyce said. "The college has been thriving and I'm looking forward to working with our members and the industry to support their businesses." He has been involved in the Melbourne College of Commerce as a member for eight years and was elected chair in May last year. "I was impressed by the calibre of the candidates and all the students' strong academic background. In this important position, we need a person who knows not only about commerce but who understands the professional community and its needs." Mr Kelly has been chief executive of the college for the past seven years. "I've greatly valued the support I've received from Mark since becoming a member of the college and am sure he'll do a great job," Mr Kelly said. He said Mr Joyce's appointment will be good for the college and the wider community, and the association's future looks bright
