And because you are able to create as many categories as you need, you are able to prevent ReadyNotes from becoming cluttered with too many pages of rarely or old needed information. Using your handy text writing tool that is installed automatically, you are able to quickly write notes, save them and print them out. You are also able to edit them directly from the pages, but if you press Delete, you will simply lose the note with the print options as first page. The notes can be printed out neatly or in a column view that can be superimposed on any other page. You can perform tasks like saving to disk, converting to a regular webpage, hiding the note from display and inserting an image with a watermark on it. You can also manage your notes and categories in a simple and convenient way! Enjoy the addictive
