Medieval 2 Total War is a fantastic global strategy game from Creative's build. It was a game followed by a sequel. It was a game that we would like to see in the future. It was a game that was supposed to be even better and more interesting. It was a game that needed to get better. Finally, this is a game that should have been better. It was a game followed by a sequel. It was a project that we are very proud of. It was a game that we were never able to complete. It was a game that should have gotten better, but it didn't. After all, it was the game we still play today.
