On 10 February 2001, the film was released on videotape. It was written by Lucy Modecki and directed by Darren Aronofsky. The film begins with a pre-title scene where an unknown young girl (played by Angelina Jolie) is dragged from a boat into the jungle by an unseen character. She then meets a Native American (played by Camille Paglia) who takes her to the Croft estate where she is introduced to the owners – Croft himself (played by Angelina Jolie) and his wife Maxine (played by Sigourney Weaver). Maxine asks Lara to search for treasure. She is soon followed by Roarke (played by Eric Stoltz), an Australian treasure hunter. Roarke traps Lara on Croft Island by bringing his wooden boat near a waterfall. She makes her way to a stone cabin, wherein she finds a notebook belonging to Maxine. The rest of the film is set on Croft Island and mostly
