System Requirements For JSound:

Notes: The home screen for the Menu UI is very simplistic. You can use a stylus to navigate around and delete files. Using the stylus, you can swipe to open up files that aren't in your current view. However, the NavBar takes up the full width of the screen. Swiping to the right or left will allow you to scroll through the menus. There are 3 tabs at the top of the home screen. When selecting the tabs, you'll see that the content in each tab is resized to be compact
