"I'll see you in the valley of the shadow of death" – that's how Moses described the wilderness of the Israelites' exit from Egypt. What Moses saw as they journeyed from the Nile to the Red Sea was actually a fable, and the valley of the shadow of death was actually the Valley of Jezreel in Palestine. While the Bible gives no clue that Moses also visited ancient Jerusalem and the Sea of Galilee, there are references that prove it. The desert was the main "battle" in the wilderness; the Israelites moved through it and their first camp was at the Red Sea, then in the west, the land of
