O ministro Alexandre de Moraes determinou, nesta terça-feira (13), o bloqueio do aplicativo de transporte Uber na cidade de São Paulo, porque não respeitou uma determinação anterior da Justiça, que proibiu o funcionamento do app e suspendeu a inserção de passageiros em caso de assalto. Leia Também Governo extinguiu licença do Uber em dezembro O ministro Alexandre de Moraes determinou ainda que Uber suspenda os serviços de parcelamento de voos (quando ocorre uma cancelada e o parcelamento é feito em segundos), aos quais os motoristas ligados ao aplicativo podem aplicar aos passageiros, porque eles não têm registro da operação. "Entendemos que a suspensão foi anunciada de forma aleatória, sem que o Uber informasse os passageiros e cumprisse a decisão judicial anterior. Não entendemos como, então, tem direito de parcelamento de voos", afirmou o ministro à imprensa, por telefone. MISSION VIEJO, Calif., Oct. 11 (UPI) -- An elderly man was arrested for impersonating a police officer and threatening to shoot a woman who wouldn't open the door of her home, the Mission Viejo police said. Donny Ray Jones, 68, had his car impounded Thursday morning after he reportedly pointed a gun at a woman who wouldn't open the door of her home in the 1600 block of Arroyo Grande Drive. Jones allegedly told the woman he had a "canine" and would shoot her if she didn't open the door. The woman then called police. When the officer arrived he found Jones sitting in the car. The officer then called for backup. Jones was taken into custody. He told officers he used to be a police officer.
