The extension enables you to listen to unlimited cloud and local music from countless different streaming music sites including Spotify, Deezer, Youtube Music, Google Play Music, KKBox, Tidal, Beatport, and more. Furthermore, Streamkeys offers quick access to web music service shortcuts; so if you're listening to your music on your desktop, you can hit the hotkeys to skip through Spotify playlists or play/pause your favourite YouTube videos. You can also use media keys on a multimedia keyboard to control playback. These are usually found above the arrow keys; therefore, you can pause and play music using the spacebar. If you have problems accessing a site, you can open the extension's Chrome menu and navigate to the "Streamkeys > Open web store" option to open a web page directly. There are so many different music sites available for streaming, and although most of them use similar software, this extension is very easy to configure; therefore, they all work perfectly. Cons: The developer has indicated that there will be no paid updates or new features added in the near future. Alternative: A huge number of similar extensions exist;
