Farhady, Hossein. 2011. "Applied Linguistics." In The Encyclopedia of Applied Linguistics, edited by Bas Aarts., /jrl/en/Manchester United are poised to bring in a new goalkeeper this summer in a deal that could ultimately eclipse the £71m acquisition of David De Gea. The Red Devils have spent almost £80m in total on players so far this summer, but are also preparing to invest significantly more at least until they replace Paul Pogba who joined Juventus for a world record fee. The club are understood to have had an offer turned down for Monaco's 21-year-old international stopper Alphonse Areola last week but there will be competition for the talented but inexperienced French goalkeeper. Manchester United have had an offer for Monaco's Alphonse Areola rejected by the club. (Image: Reuters) United are also believed to be keen on Nice's Alphonse Areola who is understood to be the top option of the players who are currently leaving Monaco. It is believed that the Old Trafford hierarchy remain interested in Grabban who only joined the Ligue 1 club from Fulham in January 2014. Like Grabban, the Red Devils have been linked with a move for Swansea's Ben Davies who is reportedly being monitored by United. However, South Wales Mirror claim that Swansea are currently unwilling to sell the 22-year-old after he made a big impact in a first season back in Wales' top flight.
