I know the states have their own agenda but come on, how does Michigan not make the top ten? Yeah, Flint had its problems but seriously? Genesee Co. was one of the worst in the state? And now in general, Michigan is now considered a better state to be from, not only than the Northeast, but the West Coast as well. Michigan was almost on par with the West Coast, but still better than the Northeast. That is, until the Great Recession. Fact: Michigan had a better economy in the years after the Great Recession. Fact: Detroit was mostly doing well until recently. Fact: Flint is close to 100 miles away from Lake Huron. Fact: In the past Michigan has been known to have more dirty industries than New York and California combined. Why don't we drop the bullshit? Michigan is moving forward, and as long as we keep moving forward, we will be good. Yes, Michigan has its problems. Everyone knows that. But we are a different state than we were. Michigan has a solid economy, and over the last five years Michigan has been one of the states who have grown faster than the rest of the nation.
