I can assure you that the name of this track is "Epstein Two-Step" and not "Epstein One-Step." I think this came as a result of my incorrect understanding of the process of clearing the dance track of the signature samples still used in the track at the time of my recording. I did not clear "credits" or the sample before submitting the track and thus the title did not reflect the track in its edited form. I apologize for the confusion and am leaving this track up for re-evaluation, rather than simply removing it. This is the second, somewhat rough, live recording of our live show which I recorded at the 9:30 Club in Washington, DC on May 2, 2005, as a special encore for the May 3 show. The show was not broadcast live, but scheduled for release on CD by Time for Music later that year and on DVD by Beacon films. I eventually made this available on my first CD (released by Imposter records in 2005). (This track contains strong profanity, which I assume was from JPLM. While I can't say for certain, it seems likely and some may find it objectionable. I did not clean it for release.)SPORTS Which team is closer to winning the 2017 U.S. Open Championship?
