The screenshot shows a file download interface. On the left, there is a blue folder icon with a white cloud inside, representing the file. To its right, the text reads: "File was found and ready to download!" followed by "UPDATED 14 HOURS AGO". Below this, it says "Fastest Source: useget.nl" with a small logo for useget.nl. A smaller line of text below that says "Click the download button and select one of the found cloud sources." There is a "Download" button with a downward arrow icon. To the left of the button is a rating of "6.4" with five stars, and to the right is a "SECURE SCANNED" badge. Below the main content area, there is a message: "You need to log in before you can post comments." At the bottom, there are three icons with labels: "Navigation" (a list icon), "Registration" (a document with a plus icon), and "FAQ" (a circular refresh icon).

Four former state delegates have filed lawsuits against the leaders of the state GOP alleging that the party stole the election from them and rigged the vote for Donald Trump. Delegates James Traficant Jr., Ken Kratzmann, Stephen Haverstick and James Wafford are accusing Ohio Republican Party Chairman Steve Stivers and former party officials of "conspiring, directing, implementing and executing a scheme to deprive them of their right to delegate votes that would have enabled them to stop Donald Trump and advance the Ohio Republican Party agenda." The suit seeks the reinstatement of those delegates to the 2016 convention, a judgment against the defendants for "fraud, conspiracy and willful misconduct" and unspecified damages. The lawsuits were filed Tuesday in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Ohio. The suit is the second by Traficant since the election. Traficant was expelled from the party last year, accusing the leadership of treason, after threatening to sue over the expulsion.
