GREENFIELD, Ind. – A woman is in custody after allegedly driving away from a crash that involved a 9-month-old girl, police say. The crash happened around 9 a.m. Saturday on the 800 block of South Aberdeen Street in Greenfield. According to Greenfield Police, a vehicle driven by Jacie Shepard struck a car in the left lane. Police say she ran over a seat on the passenger side of the car. When police arrived, the toddler was lying on the ground and Shepard was standing over the child. Police say Shepard told them she was distracted. Police identified the toddler as Isabella Ann Shepherd. She was taken to a local hospital with non-life threatening injuries. A neighbor tells FOX59 Shepard had two prior run-ins with police. She says she had no idea anything would go wrong. “
